External recruitment has never been more rewarding

Spring is just around the corner and we are already seeing positive signs suggesting that the economy is about to start the long anticipated recovery. To celebrate the end of winter and the beginning of the positive turn in our economy SCI Recruitment has a special offer to our clients.

We are offering your organisation a free week's holiday for two in a prime location on the Gold Coast when you recruit three senior roles within your organisation through SCI before Christmas.

To find out more about this offer and how your organisation can benefit from retaining our services, please contact Steve Ignatov on (09) 962 5687 or email your enquiry to scienquiries@scirecruitment.co.nz

*This offer is valid until 16 December 2009 and applies to all full time permanent roles with start salary of $80,000 per annum or more.
